Features of organizational membership include:

- Three individual ABAI memberships. Each membership includes:
 - Subscriptions to Inside Behavior Analysis (IBA) and The Behavior Analyst (TBA).

New organizational members also have the opportunity to submit one two-page article for one issue of Inside Behavior Analysis highlighting the organization's background, history, and application of behavior analysis science and technologies through its services. (Materials submitted for publication are subject to review by the Organizational Review Committee).

Although organizational membership in no way implies ABAI endorsement of the services provided, this package allows organizations to utilize ABAI resources more effectively.

Criteria and Review Process for New Applicants

All new applicants for ABAI organizational membership are reviewed by the Organizational Review Committee for consistency with the mission of ABAI. Organizational applicants must show evidence of genuine training in behavior analysis, have contributed to the literature on behavior analysis, and provide services consistent with behavior analytic principles. Organizations must employ at least one Full member of ABAI and one BCBA, or two Full members of ABAI in full-time positions.

2012 Organizational Membership Requirements

- Three completed ABAI individual membership forms with appropriate documentation.
- Completed order form and payment.
- A 65-word description of your organization and its products or services (to be included on the ABAI website). In order for your organization's information to be included in the Annual Convention program book, applications must be submitted by January 20, 2012.

- A high-resolution electronic copy of your organization's logo (to be included on the ABAI website).
- A two-page introductory article (subject to editing by ABAI) for inclusion in Inside Behavior Analysis. The article should clarify how your organization comports with the ABAI mission and provide a detailed description of all products and services. Information on the organization's background, history, and application of behavior analysis science and technologies is also recommended.

Renewing organizational members should complete:

- The organizational contact page of the application. Please advise ABAI of any changes to logo, company description, or contact information, including names of those receiving individual memberships and convention registrations.

Organizational membership fees are $4,925 for a new organization and $3,350 for a renewing organization.

Set-Up/Tear-Down

All crates must be unpacked and ready for removal by 7:00 pm on May 24. Crates not unpacked will be removed and stored at the exhibitor's expense. Empty boxes not properly stored will be discarded. Any service personnel charges will be the exhibitor's responsibility (see "Booth Decorating"). No set-up or moving of material or equipment is permitted during exhibit hours. In order to better serve convention attendees and ensure security, exhibitors must have their booths open and staffed during all exhibitor hours.

Any exhibit space not occupied by 7:00 pm on Thursday, May 24, is subject to reassignment or resale by the association without refund, unless prior approval is obtained in writing from ABAI.

Dismantling

All exhibit booths must remain open and staffed for the entire duration of the exhibition. Your exhibit booth must be set up no later than 7:00 pm on Thursday, May 24, and dismantled no earlier than 9:00 pm on Monday, May 28.

Please review the exhibit schedule before making travel plans. To maintain the integrity of the exhibition, all exhibitors are required to remain open until the close of the exhibit hall. Exhibitors who dismantle early may be subject to a 1-year suspension of exhibitor privileges.

Deposit

A $250 deposit is required with your application to reserve your booth. The deposit is due when the exhibitor contract is submitted, and is required to hold your space. The balance of the amount for the exhibit booth is due by April 1, 2012. Failure to remit the balance of the rental by the date specified constitutes cancellation of the contract, and the reserved space will be subject to resale without refund of deposit. Payment in full is required before set-up on the show floor.

Cancellation

Should an exhibitor wish to cancel a reservation prior to January 20, 2012, a $100 administrative fee will be held. If an exhibitor cancels after January 20, 2012 (after the program book is printed), the entire deposit of $250 will be held. Cancellation after April 1, 2012, obligates the exhibitor to full payment of the rental. No refunds will be made after this date.

Booth Representatives

Each exhibitor will receive two complimentary convention registrations with the booth fee. Additional booth representatives will be required to register for the convention.

Subletting

Exhibitors may not assign, sublet, or apportion the whole or any part of the space allocated to them, or the exhibit therein, or permit any other person or firm to exhibit therein any goods other than those manufactured or distributed by the exhibitor in the regular course of business, without written consent of ABAI.

Booth Layout

No exhibit will be permitted to span an aisle by roofing or floor covering. The exhibit should be installed so as not to project beyond the space allotted, or obstruct the sight lines of or otherwise interfere with other exhibitors. Exposed unfinished sides of exhibit backgrounds must be draped to present an attractive appearance. Inspections of the exhibits will be made during set-up time and an effort made to advise exhibitors of any deviation from the exhibit rules. In the event an exhibitor is not available, the exhibit manager will order necessary draping, and costs will be charged to the exhibitor.

Booth Decorating

Exhibitors are responsible for any items necessary for their displays, including furniture, material handling, draping, accessories, signs, electrical outlets, and so on, beyond those provided by ABAI. Order forms for these items will be provided in an exhibitor service manual from the official decorator once the application has been processed.

Care of Exhibit Space

Exhibitors must surrender space occupied by them in the same condition it was in at the commencement of occupation. Exhibitors or their representatives shall not injure or deface the walls, columns, floors, or furniture of the exhibit facilities. All property destroyed or damaged by the exhibitor must be replaced in its original condition by the exhibitor at his or her own expense. The exhibitor shall be liable for all property damaged.

Direct Sales

Exhibitors may only promote products from their booths. No direct selling by exhibitors is permitted. If you have products you would like sold through the ABAI Bookstore, please contact the ABAI office at (269) 492-9310 or mail@abainternational.org.

Canvassing

Canvassing or distributing advertising matter outside the exhibitor's own space is not permitted. It is strictly prohibited to publicize and/or maintain any extracurricular activities, inducements, or demonstrations away from the exhibition area during the exhibit hours.

Security

ABAI will provide limited roaming security in the hall throughout the event. Do not leave items of value unattended. Exhibitors will be responsible for the security of booth materials and personal items at all times. Valuable items inside the booth space may require additional security at the exhibitor's own expense.

Noise and Equipment

Electrical or other mechanical apparatus must be muffled for noise and positioned so as not to interfere with other exhibits. X-ray equipment may not be operated. Volatile or flammable oils, gases, unprotected picture film, other explosive flammable matter or material, or any substance prohibited by city laws or insurance carriers are not permitted on the premises.

Outside Exhibit Contractor

If an exhibitor chooses to utilize its own contractor for material handling; labor; rental of mechanized equipment, standard and specialty furniture, carpet, or flooring; staging; exhibit rental; installation and dismantling labor; or transportation, the exhibitor must provide to the official decorator at least 30 days prior to the convention move-in date (i) a written statement setting forth the identity and intended use of the contractor, and (ii) evidence from the contractor of the following minimum insurance coverage: (a) Workers' Compensation insurance in the minimum amount as required by state law; (b) automobile liability insurance in a minimum amount of $2 million covering all owned, hired, and non-owned vehicles; and (c) commercial general liability insurance in a minimum of $2 million. Additionally, the contractor must list the official decorator and ABA International as additional insured on the policies.

ADA Compliant

The exhibitor agrees to ensure that its exhibit booth space is in compliance with the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA). To comply with the ADA, exhibitors should make every effort to accommodate attendees who are handicapped.

Liability

Insurance and liability are the full and sole responsibility of the exhibitor. Neither the Association for Behavior Analysis International; nor any of its officers, employees, or representatives; nor the owners, employees, or representatives of the official decorator or the Washington State Convention Center shall be responsible for injury, loss, or damage that may occur to the exhibitor's property prior to, during, or subsequent to the exhibition period, provided such injury, loss, or damage is not caused by the negligence or willful act of one or more of the aforementioned parties. Exhibitors, by accepting space and making application for space, acknowledge the above terms and expressly release the above-named association, individuals, and firms from any and all claims for such loss, damage, or injury.
